Open Badge Network (OBN) Charter

Mission: To establish Open Badge Network as a trusted source of independent information, tools and informed practice, facilitating a badge ecosystem to be developed across Europe.

Members of the OBN agree to:

1. Advocate the adoption of Mozilla's Open Badge standard across Europe to recognise learning achievements gained in variety of contexts
2. Provide information, guidelines and case studies to enable the widest possible adoption of Open Badges across policy, education, employers, service providers and individuals
3. Advocate for and enable social inclusion by ensuring marginalised groups are able to gain recognition for all their skills and achievements, supporting their personal and professional progression
4. Raise the value and profile of informal and non-formal learning taking place outside of formal education
5. Support on-going development of an open source backpack to ensure end users' data is portable between systems and retained by the individual

This Charter will be delivered through the following activities:

- 1. Promote the use of Open Badges for the recognition of learning;
 - a. Creation of discussion papers to explore badge issues & opportunities
 - b. Production of guidelines to support implementation
