

What is Open Badge Network?

The Open Badge Network (OBN) is an Erasmus + project which brings together organisations from across Europe to support the development of an Open Badge ecosystem, promoting the use of Open Badges to recognise the outputs of non-formal and informal learning.

Who are the OBN partners?

- Beuth University of Applied Sciences Berlin (DE, coordinator)
- CamProf - Cambridge Professional (UK)
- DME - DigitalMe (UK)
- DUO - Dutch Education Executive Agency (NL)
- EDEN - European Distance E-Learning Network (UK)
- ARTES - Applied Research into Training & Education (IT)
- ITeE - The Institute of Sustainable Technologies (PL)

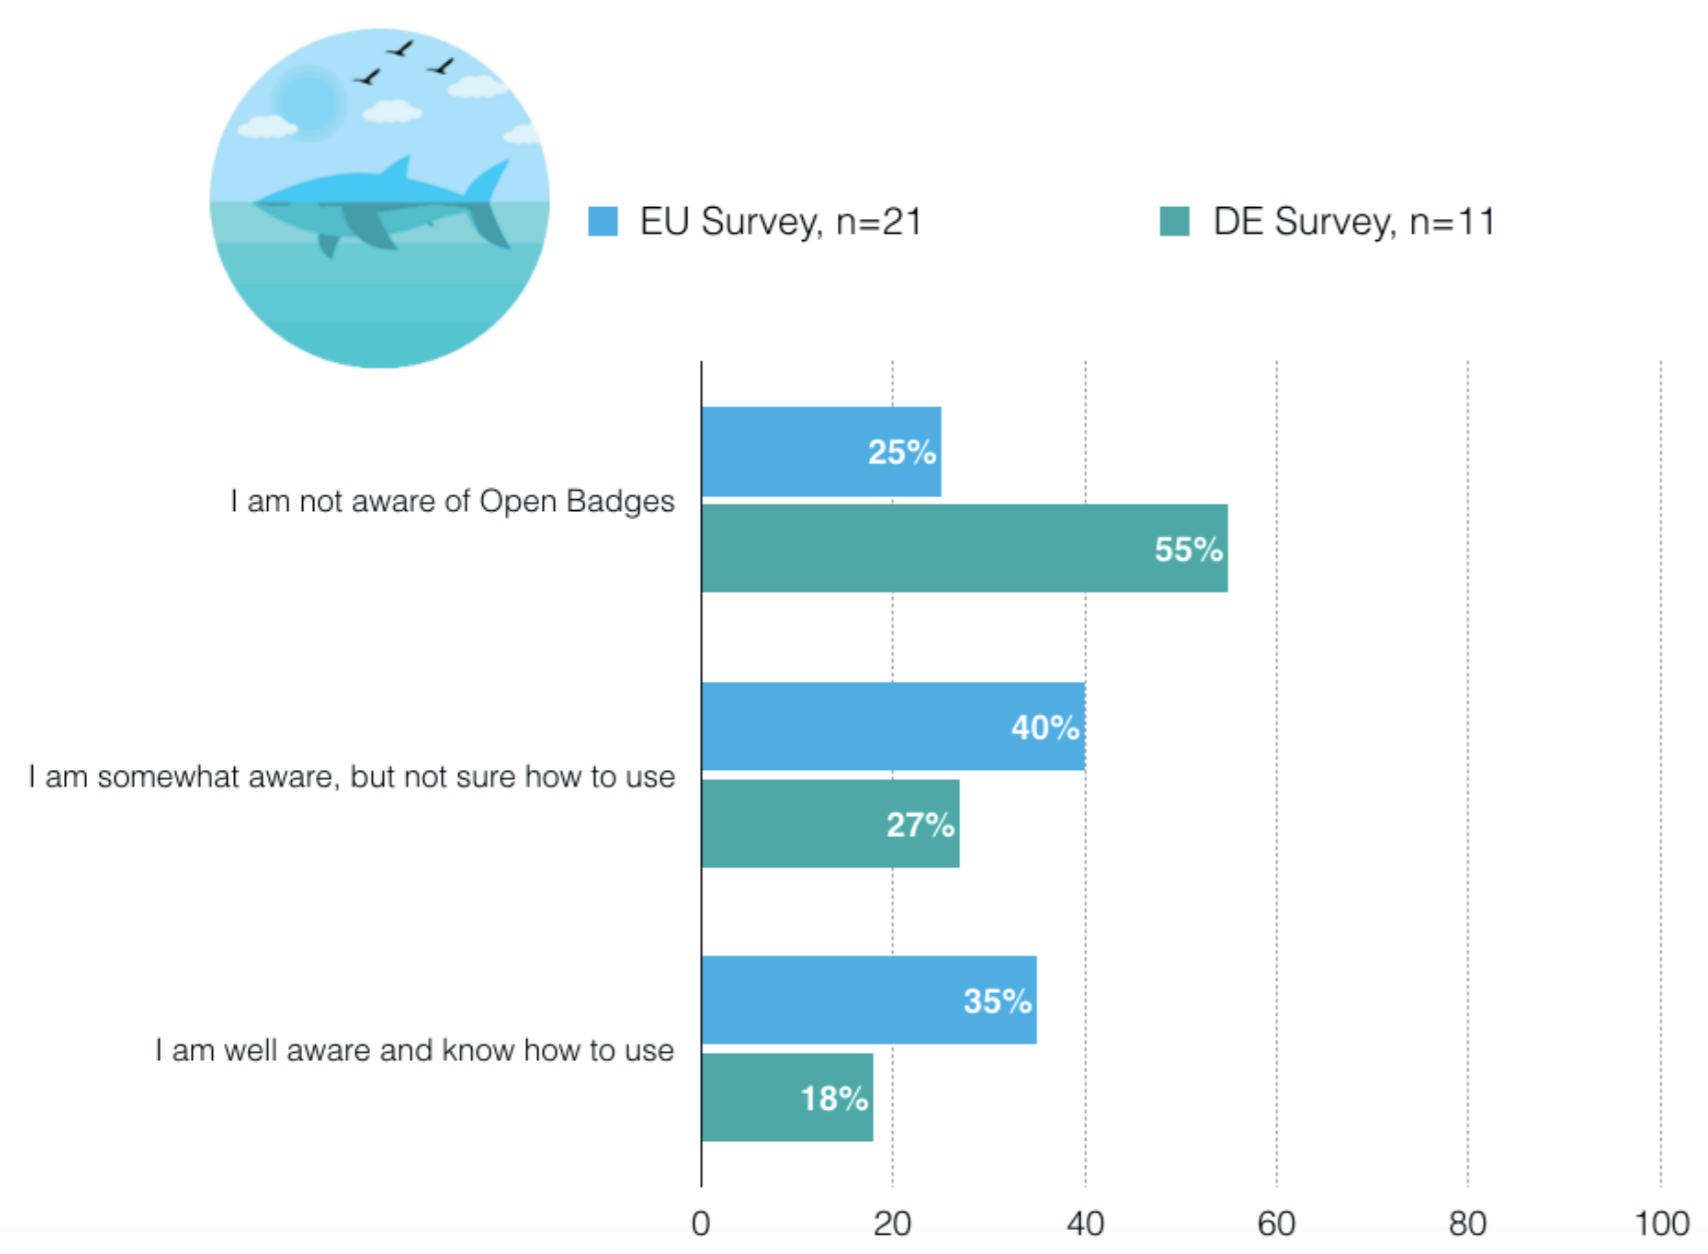

World Map with Open Badges initiatives and projects – www.badgetheworld.org

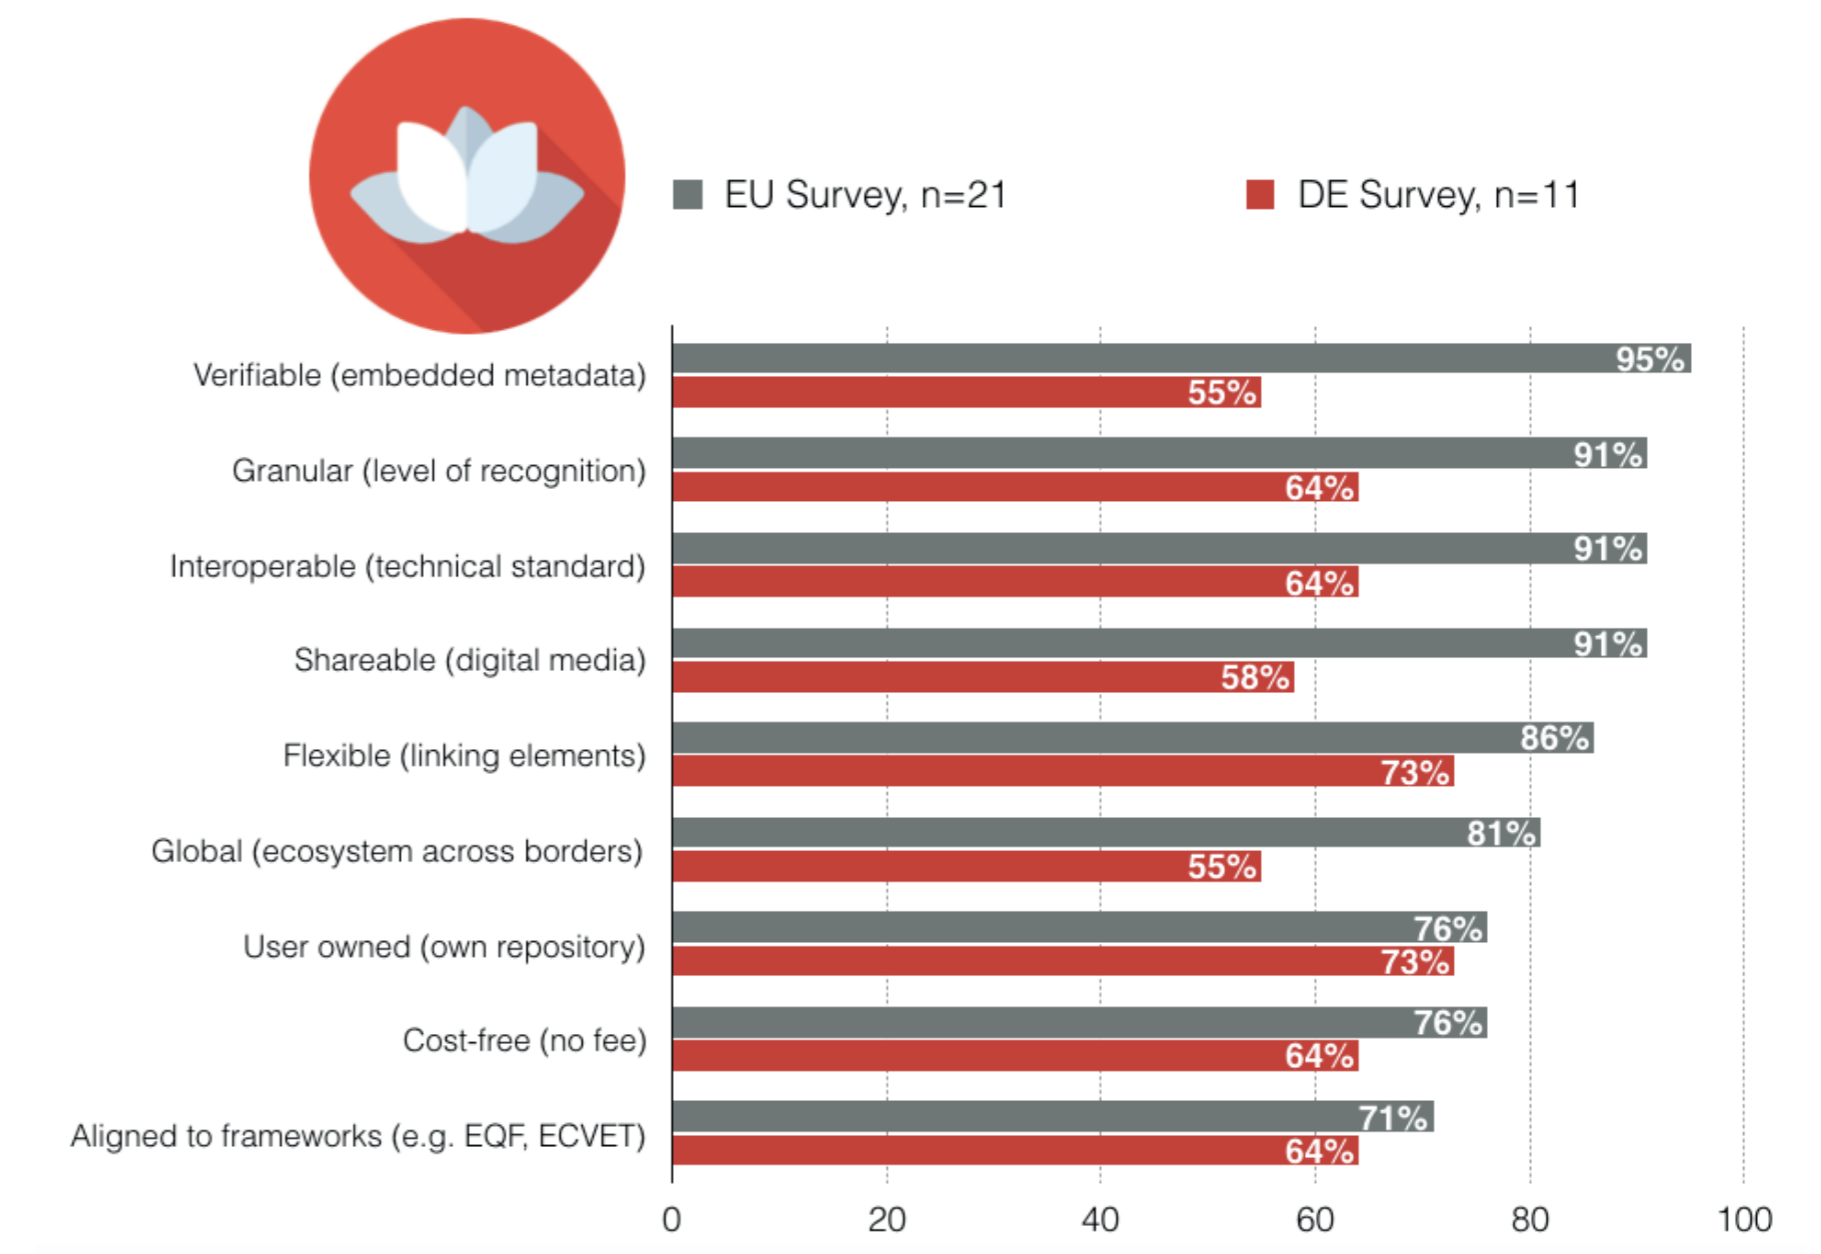

What makes a Badge?

Badge Name: "90% of the badge system is not visual"
 Description: Klein, J. (2013)
 Criteria:
 Issuer:
 Evidence:
 Date Issued:
 Standards:
 Tags:

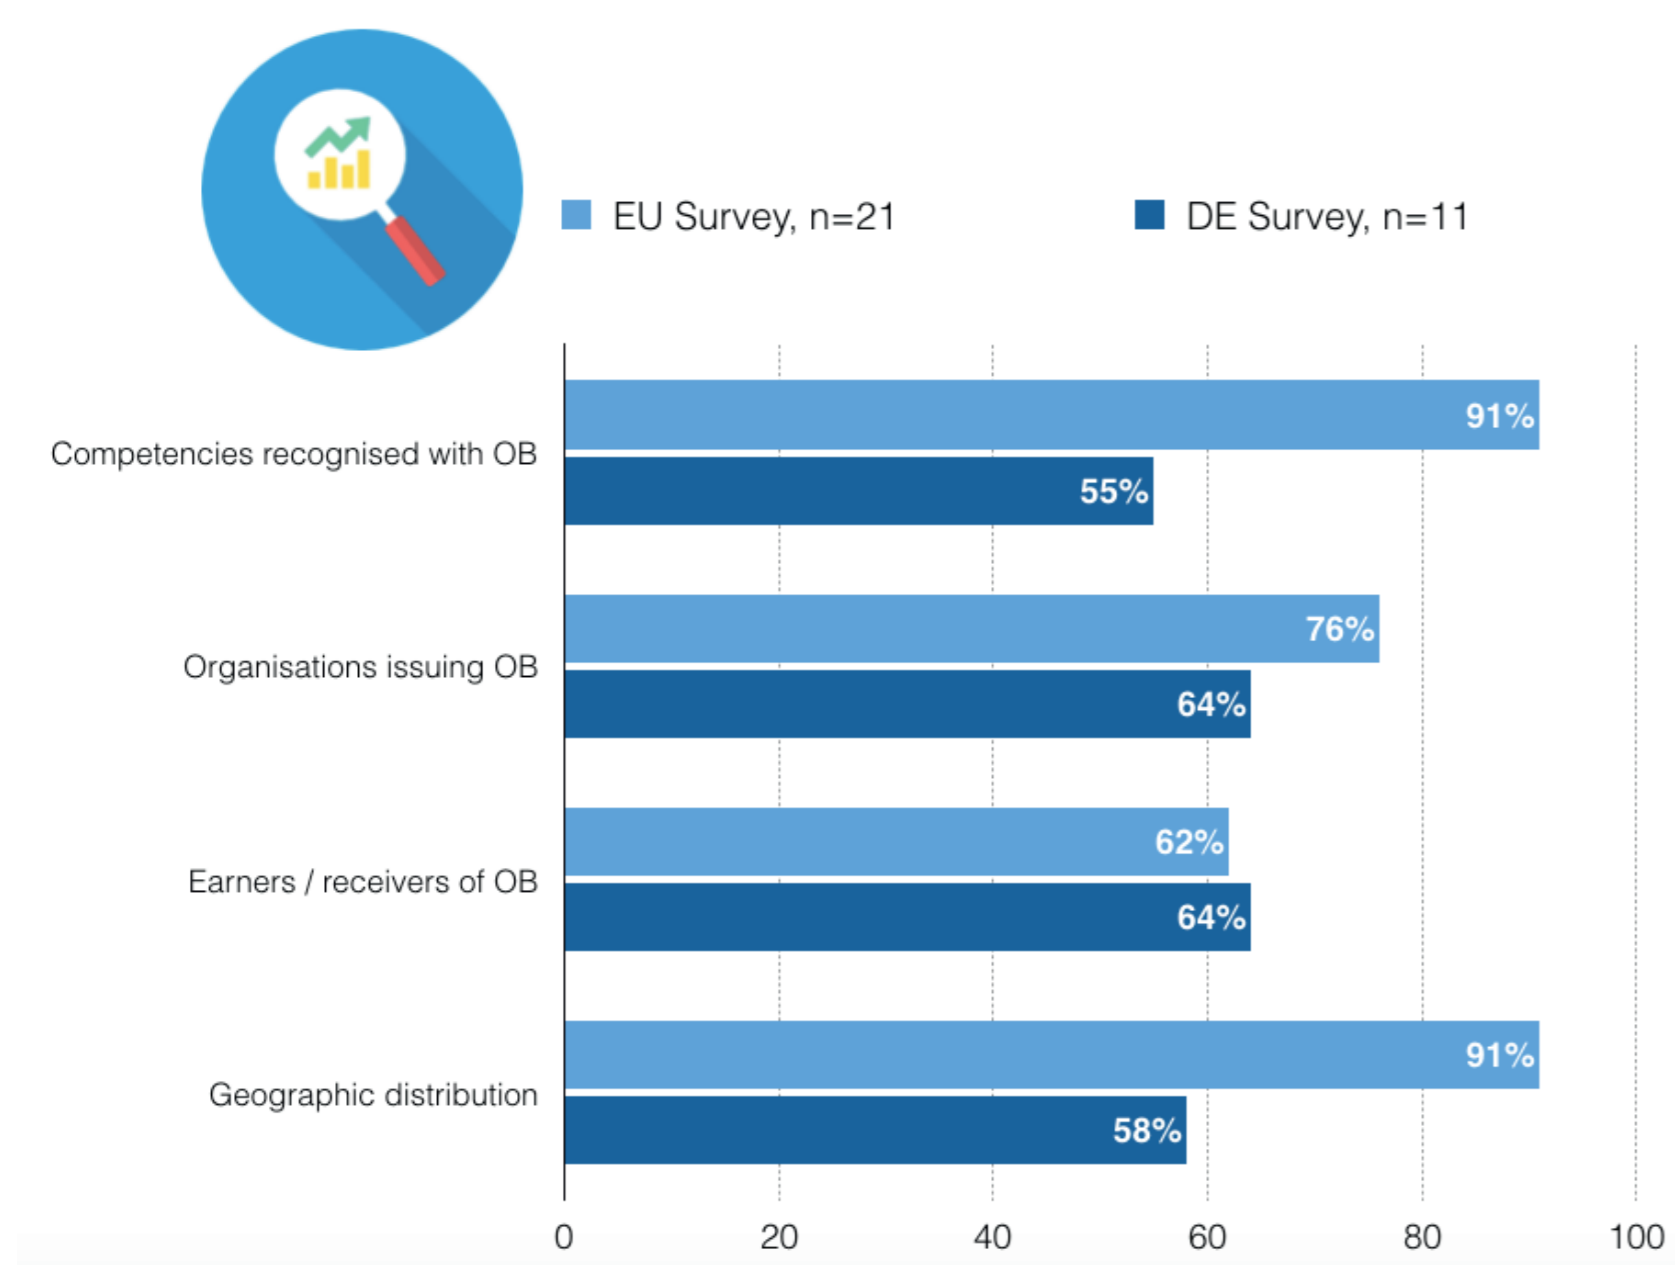

How aware are you of Open Badges?

Which OB features are essential?

What statistical data is of interest?

What is the potential of Open Badges?

